A MOB REPULSED.

Birmingham, Ala., the Scene of a Bloody Riot.

RIFLES AND A GATLING GUN USED WITH DEADLY EFFECT.

Ten Men Killed and a Number Seriously If Not Fatally Wounded—Petition to the Governor Demanding the Removal of Sheriff Smith—A Regiment of Soldiers Now Guarding the Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 11.—The Hawes murder mystery has been solved! A terrible riot has resulted. The mob stormed the jail, bent on lynching Hawes, the mur-derer. A sheriff's posse opened fire on the maddened crowd and shot to kill. As the volleys rang sharply on the air a score of citizens threw up their hands with wild cries and groans of pain and sank to the ground dying or wounded. There were ten killed outright, two fatally shot and ten wounded more or less severely. The city is in a tumult of intense excitement and Hawes is still safe in jail.

The story of the terrible affair is as follows:
Saturday afternoon the announcement was given out that the mutilated body of the missing mother, Mrs. Emma K. Hawes, whose daughter May was murdered, had been found in the murky waters of the lake at Lakeview, a suburban resort, and a half a mile only from Eastlake, where the body of her daughter May was recovered. The rumor proved true, and in half an hour thousands of excited men, women and children hurried forward to the lake. The suspicion had gone abroad early in the day that likely the body had been secreted there, as it was only about 200 yards from the Hawes home.

About 11 o'clock four determined men set to work to drag the lake with grappling hooks. Near 11 o'clock one of the hooks struck a heavy, yielding substance, and soon the mutilated corpse lay on the bank.

The combined strength of four men was required to land it. The body was weighed down with heavy pieces of "fish-plate" railroad iron tied around the neck and waist of the murdered woman. She was completely clad, and around her neck and waist were tied heavy scarlet cords known to have been at the Hawes residence, to which were attached six iron pieces weighing about ten pounds each.

The back of the dead woman's skull shows the horrible story of the tragedy. It had been crushed in with some blunt instrument, presumably an ax. The entire occipital bone is crushed in, and there is a gaping cavity that is only half concealed by her heavy Auburn hair. Her right hand was happily skinned across the back, as if injured in a struggle for life, and the appearance of the face and hands indicate that the body had been in the water several days. The body as soon as found was taken to the shore and laid out with the iron weights which had held it to the bottom still tied around the neck and waist.

As it lay on the bank the crowd of curious and indignant spectators crowded around and momentarily increased until it swelled into a surging multitude. The feeling of horror, rage and desperation increased momentarily until it reached the point of frenzy. Threats of vengeance were heard coming from lips whose utterances the people of Birmingham have long since learned to know mean what they say, and strong men almost cried in the intensity of their excitement.

Meanwhile the search for the body of the youngest child of Mrs. Hawes went on, but up to 8 o'clock Sunday night it had not been found.

Late Saturday afternoon a mob began to congregate at Second and Third avenues and Nineteenth street. It swelled to fully 10,000 in number. Talk of lynching Hawes and his two negro accomplices in the murder was heard on every hand.

By Mayor Thompson's order Marshal Packard had surrounded the jail with a large posse. These men were armed with Winchester rifles and a Gatling gun.

At midnight Saturday the mob around the county jail began slowly pressing back the outer guard, and advanced down Twenty-first street to the mouth of the alley leading to the jail entrance. The alley is about a hundred feet long and twenty wide, and is the only approach to the jail. When the crowd reached the mouth of the alley Sheriff Smith, from the jail, warned them to stand back time and again. He yelled to them to keep back, as they would be fired on if they advanced up the alley. Finally he called out:
"I will count three, and if a man remains in the alley we will fire."

He counted three, and the crowd fell back a little, and the officers did not fire. This seemed to make the mob bolder, and again they pressed up the alley. Sheriff Smith yelled to them: "I will count five, and if you do not fall back we will fire." He counted five, while the mob halted, yelled and continued to advance up the alley. Then the officers opened fire, which was at once returned by the mob.

At least a thousand shots were fired. Then the mob fell back leaving the ground covered with dead and wounded men. Several dead were hurriedly carried away by their friends before identified.

Postmaster M. B. Throckmorton was shot through the body, and is dead. He was near the front of the mob trying to disperse it.
The killed are, Frank Calder, M. B. Throckmorton, postmaster; J. R. McCoy, A. B. Yarrant, A. D. Bryant, C. C. Tate, a painter; Colbert Smith, colored; unknown man, colored; Charles Jenkins, — Brand-den.

The fatally wounded are, Charles Bailey, Louisville & Nashville brakeman; A. J. Schiede, mechanic.

The other wounded are, J. W. Montgomery, — Berkeley, John H. Merritt, Matt Kennedy, J. W. Owen, carpenter, J.
W. Gilmore, Albert Smith, colored; W. A.
Bird, L. Relohwein, Lawrence Fitzhugh, civil engineer.

Hawes was seen in the jail after the attack. He appeared unconcerned and said:

"Yes, I know what the shooting meant.
That crowd wanted my life and they can have it."

He seemed to feel that the mob would succeed in getting in the jail, and he dressed himself and expressed his readiness to accompany the crowd as soon as they reached him. He still stoutly asserts his innocence of the charge of having murdered his wife and child.

Sheriff Smith and Marshal Packard both regret the terrible affair, but feel that they did their duty.

A petition to Governor Say was circulated Sunday and received 10,000 signatures demanding the removal of Sheriff Smith.

All day Sunday Birmingham continued in a tumult of excitement. There was, however, no further attempt at storming the jail.

The Second regiment of Georgia arrived on a special train, and at night 500 soldiers, with two Gatling guns, guarded the jail.

It was reported Sunday night that Sheriff Smith, Marshal Packard and others had been jailed on warrants.

One very remarkable feature is that nearly every man killed was shot in the back, showing that the crowd had turned away when the firing was begun. Postmaster Throckmorton was shot in the lower back through and through; A. D. Bryant was shot through the heart from the rear. Many point to this as very damaging to the officers.

The military seem to have complete control of the city, and it is hoped that no further resort to arms will be made. Col.
Jones, in command of the militia, Sunday night issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to refrain from assembling in the neighborhood of the jail, and requesting them not to assemble in crowds anywhere in the city. He invokes the aid of all good citizens to assist the authorities in allaying the excitement, and preserve peace and good order.

A similar proclamation has been issued by Mayor Thompson who calls upon all law-abiding citizens to "put aside their private grievances and guard with loyalty the public peace, and maintain the law and order of our city."

A report reached the city during Sunday evening that bands of miners were preparing to march on the city to renew the attack upon the jail. Col. Jones believes, however, that his force is sufficiently strong to resist any such movement.

ANARCHIST MEETINGS.

They Hold Them in Chicago Notwithstanding the Police.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Anarchists held meetings Sunday notwithstanding the measures adopted by the police to prevent such as-semblies. The Arbiters Baud, the group which the police are especially anxious to suppress, held a three hour session during the afternoon and 250 persons were in attendance.
The Sunday school society met at Thalia hall and defied the police, while the American Socialists had their usual Sunday afternoon gathering. The police had issued no order against the latter proceedings and nothing of a revolutionary character occurred. On the contrary the chief speaker of the afternoon denounced Anarchy. At Grief's hall the Pioneer Aid and Support association met for a few moments and then adjourned to take part in Thalia hall proceedings.

Police officers in plain clothes mingled with the crowds at the halls at which meetings had been called, and uniformed officers patrolled neighborhoods in which it was thought trouble was most likely to occur.
Strong details were held in reserve at all the stations, but in no instance were they required to suppress any attempted outbreak.
The day was characterized by an absence of violence.

Nina Van Zandt was one of the number of women at Grief's hall, and joined her protestations with others against police interference.

Fired On By Oyster Pirates.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11.—The spirit of meekness manifested by the state navy has embellished the oyster pirates of the Chesapeake to the point of recklessness and audacity. They so far forgot themselves last night as to turn their guns on a passenger steamer. About 7:30 p. m. as the steamer Corisca, of the Chester River Steamboat company, was coming out of the Chester river on her way to Baltimore she passed a large fleet of dredgers at anchor. When the steamer passed then the pirates began to yell. One of the passengers of the steamer answered with a whoop. Then the dredgers opened fire and riddled the side of the Corisca with bullets and buckshot. There were thirty passengers aboard the steamer, but they were all in their cabins except the one who dared to yell at the pirates.

The Vesuvius' Trial Trip.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—The United States dynamite cruiser Vesuvius left Cramp's shipyard Saturday morning for Delaware bay, where her trial trip will be made. Those on board were: Naval Constructor Lewis Nixon, William M. Cramp, Andrew J. Cramp, Charles S. Cramp, Edwin S. Cramp, A. C. Buell, of Washington.
The United States steamer Dispatch accompanied the Vesuvius. On board of here were:
Lieut. William S. Cowles, Lieut. Raymond P. Rogers, Lieut. Bradley Fiske, Commodore John G. Walker and Lieut. Seaton Scarce-der.

White Caps in Texas.

WACO, Tex., Dec. 11.—The White Caps fogged George Armstrong, a white man, nearly to death early Sunday morning for leaving his wife destitute and sick and publicly living with another woman. The whippers wore white caps, which came down over their faces. A notice was pinned to a tree where the logging took place, informing all citizens that the perpetrators were law abiding, but determined to mete out punishment to the guilty, when the statutes failed.

Chicago's Candidate for P. P.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—The press club of Chicago at an unusually large meeting Sunday afternoon unanimously passed a resolution endorsing Capt. William E. Meredith, of this city, for the position of public printer.

A Railroad Rouser.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 11.—It is currently rumored here that C. P. Huntington has purchased the Memphis & Little Rock railroad, and will use it as a southwest feeder for the Mississippi valley system.

PERSIA'S RULER.

Russia and England Aspirants for His Favoritism.

A RUSSIAN MILITARY OFFICER
URGES OCCUPATION BY FORCE.

Unless Persia's Treaty Opening the Town of Karun to the English is Cancelled, Bagamoyo Still the Scene of Bloodshed.
England Sends More Troops to Sunkim.
Other Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—England and Russia have for years been striving for ascendancy in the shah's domains. The latter potentate has an embarrassing task to perform in choosing which of the two aspirants shall be admitted to avowed favoritism, and in true eastern fashion is coquetting with both.

Until within a few years English influence was predominant at Teheran, but either through awkward management or the steady encroachment of Russia on the north, a greatly increased respect for the power of the czar has been observable in the conduct of the "king of kings."

A generation ago many officers of the English army, chosen for their acquaintance with eastern languages and customs, entered the Persian service, and while bringing the troops to a higher state of efficiency, greatly increased the respect felt for England's greatness and military strength.

Since then the gigantic strides of Russia in Asia contrasted with the stationary attitude of England on the eastern frontier have seemed to denote the former as the power destined to dominate affairs in that continent and the shah has shown a natural inclination to worship the rising sun. Appreciating the value of Persia as an obstacle of more importance against a Russian advance than even Afghanistan, England has taken the alarm and is using every effort to recover her influence at the court of the shah.

The rumors which come from German sources should be accepted with caution. The embroidering of England with Russia would cause a secret gratification not difficult to understand, at Berlin, and the prominence given by the German press to each petty incident likely to provoke a rupture between the two powers is not done without encouragement from those high in authority.

Whatever should be the result in the event of such a war Russia would be weakened for years by it and incapacitated for combating the designs of Germany in western Europe.
It is difficult to believe that England is deliberately courting Russia, unless she deems such a course indispensable to preserve India and is assured of the moral support, at least of the triple alliance.

The incidents reported as showing a desire on the part of Persia to offend Russian officials resident there and to throw difficulties in the way of Russian subjects purchasing provisions are only important as exhibiting an unexpected courage on the part of the shah and a departure from his recent Lussovo policy.

An Ultimatum Urged.

St. PETERSBURG, Dec. 11.—A conference was held at the office of the minister of foreign affairs, regarding the crisis between Russia and Persia. A high military officer urged as an ultimatum, the occupation of Persia by a Russian force, unless the former country cancelled the treaty opening to the English, the town of Karun, a seaport of the Persian gulf. M. De Giers, minister of foreign affairs, opposed the proposition and counseled moderation.

Fighting Continues at Bagamoyo.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Telegrams from Zanzibar say that the fighting at Bagamoyo continues, and that the town is in flames.
The German White Book shows that the October letter written by Bismarck to the consul at Zanzibar throws the entire blame for failure in east Africa upon the company's shoulders, who ought better to have respected the prejudices of the natives. The Arabs of the coast have thrown off allegiance to the sultan of Zanzibar, and are in complete possession. The East African company has lost over $1,750,000 and is ruined.
An effort will be made in the German reich stag to authorize reconquest by the government.

Reinforcements for Sunkim.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The government has ordered that troops from the Mediterranean stations be sent to Sunkim. Troops will be sent from England to replace the forces taken from the Mediterranean garrisons.
The request from Sunkim for a further reinforcement of troops after last Saturday's reconquering is believed to have been instigated by the government themselves as affording the easiest mode of retiring from an untenable attitude and from appearing to the public to entertain any misgivings as to the success of their plans.

Efforts to Detach Italy.

BERLIN, Dec. 11.—The Latin league, whose aim is to detach Italy from the triple alliance, is openly advocated by both political parties in Spain. Senor Castellar goes to Spain to invite Republicans to join a coalition against Crispin's policy, and if possible effect an alliance between Italy, France, Spain and Belgium, as against the Austro-German alliance. Premier Armiijo favors it.

At the Tomb of Dussaub.

PARIS, Dec. 11.—Four hundred persons attended a demonstration at the tomb of Dussaub Sunday. Orations were delivered and a number of wreaths were laid on the tomb.
Rain fell during the proceedings which were conducted in an orderly manner.

Foreign Notes.

The Radicals carried the Serbian elections.
Sagasta is trying to form a new Spanish ministry.

The Rome correspondent of the Times denies that the pope has authorized Catholics to vote in the Italian elections.

The Tribuna, of Rome, prints an official denial of the statement that Prince Lychenstein has offered his castle as a residence for the pope.

The Spanish queen regent has intrusted Senor Sagasta with the formation of a new cabinet. Senor Sagasta encounters much difficulty.

Boulaugst conferences held at St. Die and Epinal Sunday resulted in conflicts in which several persons were injured. The police cleared the streets.

The press of India severely condemns Lord Salisbury's insult to the Indian race, when speaking of the Parsee merchant who ran for parliament in England.

Two battalions of the line have been ordered from Antwerp to Galonviero, the center of the strikes and attempted dynamite outrages. A large number of strikers have been arrested.

Two members of a Republican society have been arrested at Nimes for an attempt to wreck the German consulate there with a dynamite bomb. No damage was done as the bomb did not explode.

It is announced by the professional agitators that 17,000 unemployed workmen are on the eve of reviving the Trafalgar square troubles, which have resulted in so much disaster and so little profits to the really needy.

The heirs to Thomas H. Blythe's millions have been found. Blythe was the natural son of Sarah Savage and Thomas H. Blythe, of Hampshire, England, who disappeared from England in 1838. Blythe died intestate in San Francisco in 1883.

A fight ensued between the Catholics and Socialists at Amsterdam meeting hall. All the furniture in the hall was smashed. The police were compelled to fire, and several of the rioters were wounded. Many arrests were made. Great agitation continues throughout the city. The matter under consideration was the erection of a statue to the pope.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

Meeting of the Association of Maryland.
Resolutions Adopted.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11.—At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Civil Service Reform association of Maryland a preamble and resolutions were adopted reciting the fact that Gen. Harrison had accepted and endorsed the civil service reform plank of the National Republican convention, and that he was, therefore entitled to look for the support of "a bold, vigilant and enlightened public opinion" in the fulfillment of the pledges of his party; the recent utterances of Senator Ingalls and other prominent public men render it necessary that the friends of good government should oppose, by all legiti-mate means, every attempt from any quarter to procure the violation of the civil service promises of the party; all civil service reform associations are urged to take such action as will keep their principles constantly before the public in such manner as will surely engage the attention of the incoming administration.

A Week's Enterprises.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The following summary furnished by the New Enterprise shows the progress of the manufacturing industries of the country, including incorporated companies' buildings, etc., for the week ending Saturday: Buildings costing over $5,000 each, 277; $6,388,041; bridges, nine, $75,000; churches, thirty-eight, $120,500; electric light companies and new plants, four, $192,000; gas companies, two, $1,200,000; manufacturing companies, sixty-two, $6,133,201; mills factories, etc., nine, $2,689,000; mining companies, twelve, $1,045,000; railroads and extensions, sixteen, $50,070,000; water works, eleven, $551,144.

White Caps True to White Word.

LIMA, O., Dec. 11.—A White Cap notice was left last Wednesday night at Thomas Casey's saloon, notifying him that unless he vacated the building within twenty-four hours it would be burned to the ground.
Casey did not heed the warning, and Saturday night the building was burned. The White Caps left notices at several other saloons to take warning by Casey's treatment and leave town.

Canon Little in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Canon Little, of Worcester cathedral, England, preached Sunday at Holy Trinity church, from the text St. John xvi, 3: "I am the way and the truth and the life." The discourse was an able exposition of doctrine and precept.

Hammond Pleads Guilty.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Henry Hermann, alias Hammond, when arraigned again today for complicity in the shooting of Phil Daly, withdrew his former plea of not guilty, pleaded guilty and was remanded.

The Weather.

Indications—Fair, except rain or snow on the lakes; warmer; southwesterly winds.

A Correction.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Meridan, Miss., says that the new organization of agriculturists has adopted the name the Farmers' and Laborers' Union of America, instead of the Alliance Wheat and Co-operative Union, as at first proposed. The next meeting will be at St. Louis in August, 1889. No report of the proceedings or results of the secret meetings has been made public.

A Rival to the S. of V.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 11.—In New York and New Jersey are rival organizations of the Sons of Veterans. They have the post instead of the camp system. Gen. Walter S.
Payne, late candidate for secretary of state on the Prohibition ticket, who was ousted from the Sons of Veterans for alleged irregularities, has been asked to organize posts of the new organization in this state.

Serious Charge Against Constock.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Michael J. Sullivan, an ex-special agent of Anthony Comstock's Society for the "Suppression of Vice," has made affidavit to serious charges which he brings against the society and its officers.
He claims that one of its agents, with the knowledge of Constock, receives $100,000 a year from gamblers who are accorded the "protection" of the society.

Geyser in Dakota.

YANKTON, Dak., Dec. 11.—Considerable of a stir was made here Saturday night over apparently well confirmed reports of a volcano having broken loose in Charles Mix county, sixty miles from here. It turns out to be a geyser, which is throwing hot mud all over the surrounding valley. The neighboring settlers are somewhat uneasy over

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY EVE., DEC. 11, 1888.

The Prohibition vote for President has increased from 9,000 in 1876 to 230,000 in 1888. The people who think this the coming party will find great consolation in these figures.

The race question is giving the people of Felicly, Ohio, lots of trouble. The whites, and they are Republicans too, are determined the negro children shall not attend the white schools.

It's a good "sign of the times" to see so much railroad building in this State. Work of that character is brisker than ever and in a few years Kentucky will have what she has long needed in the way of such enterprises.

One election is no sooner done with now-a-days than another draws apace. The "dear people" are well looked after by aspiring politicians. In Franklin County there are four candidates for the Legislature already in the field.

SENATOR VAST is predicting extravagant appropriations when Republicans take full control at Washington. The Senator should just keep quiet and give them all the rope they want. They will hang themselves all the sooner.

A few days ago the Higginsport Board of Education closed the colored school, dismissed the teacher, and the negro children are now attending the white schools. There is much grumbling among the citizens in consequence of this action, and there promises to be serious trouble.

The Ashland Republican notices the starting of the forge and rolling mill of the Norton Iron Works and exclaims: "Score another for Harrison and Protection." This Harrison and protection talk is all nonsense. If they are to have the credit for the starting up of mills they must take the blame for the shutting down of factories.

The "Official Figures" at Last.

Every since the recent Congressional election we have been trying to obtain the official vote of the district. On two or three occasions we have published what we thought was this official vote, only to find out later that such was not the case.

At last, however, the result of the official count has been published over the signature of the Secretary of State. It shows the following vote was cast:

For Thomas H. Paynter.....	17,301
For T. H. Paynter.....	1,563
For Drury J. Burchett.....	10,821
For D. J. Burchett.....	7,412
For Major D. J. Burchett.....	17
For George W. Young.....	424
For G. W. Young.....	6

Total.....37,379

"Thomas H. Paynter" beat "Drury J. Burchett" 6,480 votes, but "D. J. Burchett" beat "T. H. Paynter" 6,084 votes.

The 1,363 votes for "T. H. Paynter" were all cast in Carter County, and the 7,447 for "D. J. Burchett" were cast in Boyd, Carter, Johnson, Lawrence, Martin and Rowan counties.

The Democratic nominee ran as "Thomas H. Paynter" and not as "T. H. Paynter," and the Republican nominee ran as "Drury J. Burchett" instead of "D. J. Burchett." The figures show gross carelessness on the part of some one who had the printing of ballots in charge. All the Republican votes in the counties named were cast for "D. J. Burchett" except the 17 "Major D. J. Burchett" ballots, which were polled in Lawrence. All the Democratic votes in Carter were cast for "T. H. Paynter."

It will be well for candidates in the future to have their ballots all printed at one office.

More Talk About Tate.

There has been considerable talk of late in the papers as to the whereabouts of Dick Tate, the defaulter. A prominent State official is reported as saying: "We receive numberless communications from parties all over the country and outside of it inquiring about the amount of the reward and the circumstances of Tate's defection. Most of these people claim to have him located. A few days ago a letter was received from Kansas, written by some one who signed himself 'A Detective,' and stating that he was on the track of Tate. We sent him all the particulars of the case, the amount of the reward, etc., but have not heard from him again."

"The Governor has no power to provide for the expenses of a detective or other person inclined to hunt for Tate, as some people seem to think. A recent interview on the subject says Tate could be captured if a reward of $5,000 were offered together with the expenses incurred in his capture. Only the Legislature could make such a provision; the reward of $5,000 has been standing ever since it was first authorized and will probably never be withdrawn until the capture or death of Tate. That is the extent of executive authority, however."

Prof. J. W. Kniss is a dentist of more than passing fame. The Professor will be located here for a week or so, and during the time will give street exhibitions of his skill as a tooth-jerker and will probably give a stereoscopic and musical entertainment at Oddfellows Hall. He has now the finest set of war views traveling and should be concluded to give an entertainment. It will be of artistic merit and well worth the price of admission.

A Fair in the Forest.

The Fete des Loges is a very curious fair, for it is held in the middle of the Forest of St. Germain. No train runs within two or three miles of the spot, therefore it needs some courage to reach it. It is just this difficulty that renders it attractive and romantic. The Forest of Germain is as mysterious as central Africa to most Parisians and much more alluring. You do not expect to see fowls and legs of mutton turning on the spit, or little tables covered with white cloths, or slices of potatoes turning brown in boiling fat near the higher waters of the Congo; but you may feel confident of seeing these things at the Fete des Loges in the Forest of St. Germain.

Add to this fascinating picture wooden horses, turned by a very old and philosophic horse—not of wood, this one, but of bone and skin—who goes round and round to the strains of a barrel organ, every time of which he could sing if he had any voice, traveling theatres, wax works, American railways and wild beasts, fortune tellers, fat girls, living skeletons, and all the infernal din of the fete foraine. Parisians are not bold excursionists. They think St. Cloud on the confines of civilization; therefore they want an object other than the greenwood tree before they can make up their minds to plunge into the forest of St. Germain. The Fete des Loges supplies this motive.—Paris Cor. Boston Transcript.

Teemer Will Go to Australia.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—Oarsman John Teemer's brother Jake, when asked if Teemer had abandoned the idea of going to Australia, said he had not. He further said that John is now making preparations to go there; that he will meet Searle in the race for 4500 arranged between them by Hanlon, and will in all probability have his second contest for the championship with O'Connor on Australian waters.

TOBACCO-GROWERS.

Steps Being Taken to Organize an Association in Mason County.
Meeting Called—Its Object.

The farmers of Mason County are asked to meet at the court house next Saturday, December 15th, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a tobacco-growers' association. These associations are being formed throughout Kentucky and other sections of the country where the crop is grown. The object in view, we understand, "is to have all farmers hold their crop until satisfactory prices are obtained, and also to regulate the acreage so that there will be no overcropping and a stagnation of the market, believing that if proper measures are adopted the tobacco-grower will secure as much for one crop with such protection of organization as he would for two crops without it."

The Gallatin County tobacco-growers have issued a circular in which they claim that "all pursuits have their organizations for self-protection, and it is high-time farmers, and especially the hard-worked tobacco-raisers, should do that which will insure to their benefit." This article is published at the request of several prominent farmers who called on the BULLETIN yesterday. They earnestly request every tobacco-grower in the county to attend the meeting next Saturday at the court house.

ROSS AND MULLIKEN.

Two of the Escaped Prisoners Reported in the Vicinity of Mayslick.

A telephone message was received from Mayslick late last evening, giving some clue to the whereabouts of two of the prisoners who escaped from the jail Saturday night.

The message stated that Walter Mulliken and a fellow answering the description of Ross, one of the diamond robbers, were seen on the farm of Mr. Joseph D. Peed, three miles south of that place, yesterday morning. The party who saw them knew Mulliken well.

Deputy Marshal Fisher, acting under instructions from Jailer Fitzgerald, at once telegraphed to the officials at Falmouth, Cynthia, Paris, Carlisle and Flemingsburg to be on the look out for the prisoners. Mr. Fisher has gone to the locality where they were last seen.

Streets of New York.

The attendance at Robinson's was something phenomenal, it being claimed that 2,654 people were present at the matinee performance alone. The reason of this more than ordinary crush was the announced appearance of Frank Kilday in the ever popular sensational drama, "The Streets of New York." Mr. Kilday has always been a favorite with Cincinnati play-goers, and it is doubtful whether the popular original of "Tom Badger," Mr. Frank Mayo, could have awakened louder or more profuse applause. The part interpreted by Mr. Kilday could not well be improved upon, and being ably assisted as he was by the members of his company, the play was, of course, rendered most interesting throughout. The fire scene was exceedingly clever, and is to be highly commended.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

The above company will appear at the opera house next Saturday night. Reserved seats on sale at Taylor's.

County Court.

John A. Porter was appointed Administrator of John Teager, deceased, and executed bond with M. G. Teager, Joseph D. Teager and M. G. Moore sureties. G. W. Bennett, James Earnshaw and John Jacobs were appointed appraisers.

The last will and testament of Captain W. P. Fox, deceased, was admitted to record. B. F. Clift, J. D. Peed and Joel Laytham were appointed appraisers of the estate. All his property, real and personal, is left to his five children, Andrew T. Fox, R. Lee Fox, Susan D. Fox, Mary D. Fox and William Alfred Fox, to be divided equally among them, subject to the dower interest of his wife, Mrs. Fannie E. Fox. The land—about 77 acres—is not to be divided until the youngest child becomes of age. His wife is appointed executrix, with Andrew T. Fox joint executor.

YESTERDAY was another big day with Owens & Barkley, on shears, pocket-knives and knives and forks. Four hundred and sixty-two shears wrapped up and handed over for twenty-five cents each.

THE Maysville merchants are very liberal with their holiday advertisements, as the columns of the BULLETIN show. Let the people know where bargains are to be obtained and they will call every time. If you are not advertising, do so at once.

MISS LELIA WHEELER, a student of the Cincinnati College of Music, will give a musical entertainment at the opera house some time Christmas week. She will be assisted by Professor Levasser, Miss Swart and Miss Doty, all of the same college.

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN has a wide circulation throughout Mason and adjoining counties and merchants will find it an excellent medium through which to let the country people know where to obtain bargains in holiday goods. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

REV. G. P. LESTER, who preached in the Mayslick Baptist Church Sunday, is the Congressman-elect from the Danville, Va., district. He is said to be very popular, and overcame a Republican majority of 4,000 in the late contest. He is a "Hard Shell" or Inside Baptist.

MASON LODGE No. 345, F. and A. M., elected the following officers last night: W. M.—John W. Alexander. Sr. W.—Wm. L. Sutherland. Jr. W.—C. W. Wardle. Secretary—James K. Lloyd. Treasurer—John T. Marlin. Sr. D.—Austin Holmes. Jr. D.—Hugh Blenbow. Tyler—E. T. Hancock.

You will feel doubly repaid by visiting Hopper & Murphy's jewelry store for the next few days. They have on display $50,000 worth of diamonds, and all their entire stock will be sold at reduced prices. Now is the time to buy diamonds, watches and, in fact, everything in their line. You are especially invited to visit whether you buy diamonds or not. 81tf

MISS ELYA RICKETTS, who is teaching school in Bath County, was dreadfully injured last Friday. While engaged in her duties in the school room, which has an open fire-place, her clothing caught fire, and in spite of her efforts to extinguish the flames, they continued to spread until she ran to a branch near the school house and jumped into the water. Miss Ricketts is a daughter of the late Elder Richard Ricketts and her home is near Midway, in Woodford County. She is a grand-daughter of the venerable R. C. Ricketts, of this city.

JUDGE JESSE BOUTON and wife, of Columbia, Mo., who were called to this county a few weeks ago by the illness of her mother Mrs. Robert Perrine, near Tuckahoe, will remain some time. Mrs. Perrine has improved but little, if any. This is Judge Bouton's first visit to Mason County in about forty years. He is seventy-one years of age, and has been a staunch Democrat all his life. He met James G. Blaine in this city when the latter first came to Kentucky, and was instrumental in securing the Plumed Knight the position of teacher in the military school at Georgetown, Ky. Blaine was nineteen years old at the time, and was fresh from college in Pennsylvania. Judge Bouton has decided to make his home near Chatham, Ill., hereafter. An exchange of Columbia, Mo., says: "He has resided in Boone County for forty-eight years, and has raised to manhood and womanhood a large family of children, all of whom are filling spheres of usefulness. He leaves many friends who regret to see him depart. Last week he was the recipient of a gold-headed cane from his Sunday school class."

I. O. O. F. Notes.

Grand Master Rogers offers a handsome banner to the lodge initiating the largest number between November 1, 1888, and October 1, 1889, and an elegant collar to the member securing the largest number of initiates during the same time.

An Awful Hot Day.

The following letter will prove of interest to the writer's many friends in this city:

PASO DEL NORTE, MEX., Dec. 1, 1888.
My Dear Mr. : Well, it is awful hot here. I thought I would like it, but I believe I will go North. I will go and see a man shot in the morning, then I will go to see a bull fight, then I will go to the U. S. A. Excuse me from Mexico.

When I came through Texas all I saw was prairie dogs, cotton fields and half-breeds. The last six hundred miles I traveled over, I did not see enough raised to feed a rabbit on. Will write again in a few days. Your son, ERNIE WHITE.

*ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE*

Of the Entire Stock of Goods of F. HECHINGER, deceased, better known as HECHINGER & Co.

Oddfellows': Hall: Clothing: House.

Sale commenced November 24, and will continue it until the entire stock is closed out. We need not mention that such an opportunity to buy Clothing, Tailoring Goods and Gent's Furnishings, all of the highest and best grades, at an imperative sale rarely presents itself.

We have everything arranged in such a manner that everybody can be waited on. Goods will be marked in plain figures, one price only, terms strictly cash.

As the stock is a very large one and the Administrator is anxious to close it out as soon as possible, ALL GOODS WILL BE SOLD AT THE PRICE THEY ARE APPRAISED. As most everyone in this part of the State has knowledge of the class of goods Hechinger & Co. carry, it is unnecessary to enumerate any of them. Merchants can here find an opportunity to make profitable investments.

DYNAMITE BOMBS

Citizens of the Windy City Aroused From Their Beds

BY AN ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP SCHU-FELT'S DISTILLERY.

The Building Slightly Damaged—Fourteen Sticks of the Deadly Compound Found on the Roof—A Member of the Firm Blames the Whisky Trust, While the Police Suspect the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—A most dastardly attempt to destroy a large amount of property if not human life was perpetrated at the distillery of H. H. Shufeldt & Company, Larabee street and Hawthorne avenue.

At 6:15 o'clock the vicinity was startled by a tremendous explosion. Laboring men who were getting their breakfasts hurried to the street; women and children who had not yet left their beds, hastily threw on a few clothes and followed the men to the sidewalks; window glass rattled down onto the street from buildings on Larabee street and Chicago avenue. People stood about with blanched cheeks not knowing which way to turn.

An investigation brought out the fact that the explosion had taken place in the storeroom for highwines at the distillery. There was a great jagged hole in the roof, barrels of highwines had been knocked about promiscuously, while the floor was strewn with debris. The watchman, with others, then ascended to the roof of the building. It is a one-story brick structure, with a flat roof, fronting on Hawthorne avenue. About six or eight feet from the hole lay a package. An examination showed it to be a parcel containing seven sticks of dynamite fourteen inches long topped with fuminating caps, and out of the end was a partially burned fuse.

The roof has many skylights in it. The theory of Mr. Lynch, of the firm, is that some one who knew the way of the roof had thrown the dynamite packages on it, hoping that they would crash through the skylights down into the storeroom. There were 18,000 barrels of whisky in the storeroom and had they been ignited a terrible fire would have resulted.

For many months the firm has been fighting the whisky trust, and while mentioning no names, Mr. Lynch is pursuing his investigation in that direction, although the police suspect Anarchists.

THE HAINESWORTH CANNON.

"Was the Powder Honest, or Was Dynamite Used to Burst the Big Gun?"

PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—The Times prints a sneaky article under the caption: "Was the Powder Honest, or Was Dynamite Used to Burst the Big Gun?" The tenor of the article is that the cartridge that burst the Hainesworth east side cannon at Annapolis last week was prepared solely by men whose whole reputation depended on proving the Hainesworth gun a failure; quotes a member of the ordinance board as saying just before the test that either the gun or the ordinance board had to go to pieces, and concludes by quoting the Engineering and Mining Journal to the effect that the failure of the gun, while unfortunate, is not at all conclusive against the use of cast steel for heavy ordnance.

Frank Lawler's Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Congressman directed to place on the pension rolls the names of all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion who served and were honorably discharged from such service, and who are sixty years of age and upward, at the rate of $12 per month. All pensions under this act begin at shall receive more than one pension.

Horse-Thief Shoots a Sheriff.

MARION, Ind., Dec. 11.—Sheriff Robert L.

powered and jailed. The sheriff will die.

The Battle-Ship Texas.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—It is understood sel has been entirely abandoned until new plans which are now being prepared by the
